

N'vY Sky Suite: a night under the stars for an unforgettable experience in Geneva

Geneva 08.07.2021 – Spending the night outdoors star-gazing from the comfort of your bed is the new concept offered by the N'vY Hotel in Geneva. Like a breath of fresh air in the hotel industry, the 4-star superior establishment offers the N'vY Sky Suite a unique experience in Western Switzerland combining a high standard of comfort and an unforgettable stay.

Enjoying an open-air double size bed located on the outside terrace of your bedroom, this is what the renowned N'vY Sky Suite offers for the occasion. In an intimate setting, the privileged guests enjoy the tranquillity of a night in the open air, under the moonlit sky, with the added pleasure of a magnificent 180-degree view of Lake Geneva.

Transformed into a cosy cocoon for a moment of relaxation, the outdoor space is imbued with style and elegance with subdued lights for a quiet and romantic atmosphere. Private and not overlooked, the 30 m² terrace is adorned with a chic and trendy decoration. A telescope to observe the stars and constellations is available to most curious guests.

An exclusive and intimate dinner

To ensure a timeless evening in complete tranquillity, the meal is served in the room or on the terrace at the guests' convenience. On the menu, refined dishes that can be accompanied by an exceptional wine à la carte for a gourmet culinary experience. The privileged guests benefit from a personalised service making their stay an exceptional moment.

A designer suite just for you

This unusual accommodation also offers all the comforts of a hotel room. Spacious, bright and decorated by designer Patrick Ribes, this very modern suite with a warm design has all the amenities to relax.

The 65 m² N'vY Sky Suite with parquet floors has a separate living room and kitchenette. Equipped with a walk-in shower that blends into the space, the bathroom also offers a balneotherapy bathtub for a soothing break. A coffee machine and a tea service with minibar and courtesy tray are available for your convenience.

N'vY - art in the heart of the city

Centrally located, within walking distance of the lake, shops, and the United Nations. The N'vY hotel offers an innovative boutique hotel concept. Expect a once-in-a-lifetime experience at a premier establishment, which enhances its style with numerous works of art, vivid paintings, and modern sculpture. Pop Art and Street Art are on display, breaking the codes of the traditional hotel industry. The N'vY hotel reflects a new art of living with a boho-chic spirit. A relaxed and warm atmosphere, just like home. An experience of excellence for a unique stay in Geneva.

More information \(dedicated web page\)

Visuals available on this link

Media contact for French-speaking Switzerland

Cabinet Privé de Conseils SA

Eurielle Le Rousseau

lerousseau@cpc-pr.ch

Tel: 022 552 46 36

About the Manotel hotel group

Manotel is the leading independent hotel group in the canton of Geneva, with a capacity of 610 rooms in its six 3- and 4-star hotels. The company employs 280 employees. Since the 2000s, a vast investment programme totalling more than CHF 120 million has made it possible to renovate the entire hotel portfolio. The group is headed by Mr Paul E. Muller. www.manotel.com